As a student, you have obligations to complete any training in a safe manner.

ACCESS AND EQUITY

- Physical or intellectual or psychiatric disability, or any organism capable of causing disease
- Pregnancy
- Homosexuality (male or female, actual or presumed)
- Race, colour, nationality, ethnic or ethno-religious background
- Age
- Marital status

Our training programs are designed and wherever possible facilities are set up to enhance flexibility of delivery to maximize the opportunity for access and participation by all students. We do this by:

Promoting access to employment and training for all people regardless of gender, socio-economic background, disability, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, age, or race.

Ensuring training services are delivered in a non-discriminatory, open, and respectful manner.

Training all staff members so that they are appropriately skilled in access and equity issues.

Providing reasonable access to learners of all levels.

Conducting student selection for training opportunities in a manner that includes and reflects the diverse student population.

Actively encouraging the participation of students from traditionally disadvantaged groups and specifically aiding those most disadvantaged.

Providing culturally inclusive language, literacy and numeracy advice and assistance that help you in meeting personal training goals.

The Gold Coast Training College Training aims to identify and respond to the learning needs of all students. It is our intention that all trainers are to identify, at the start of training, the learning and assessment needs of their students. This may be accomplished informally through class discussion.

Trainers will ask questions that reveal the general English level of the students, understanding of subject concepts and technical skills, previous experience and considerations regarding possible assessment formats.

The trainers when formulating their lesson will use this information in assessment plans.

Students should express their views about their learning needs at all stages of their learning experience. We want to help students to identify their learning needs through the orientation procedure, Student Feedback Forms, Suggestion Box, lecturer discussion and an open invitation to approach staff with suggestions at any stage.

Again, these strategies provide staff with the required student based information for use in designing client training.

All courses incorporate competency units, which focus on communication skills. In addition, language, literacy, and numeric support is accessible to all students and can be organized on a case-by-case basis during student orientation day. The enrolment officer can organise required support when required. All delivery, assessment and instruction are carried out in English unless otherwise stated. We have available for your reasonable adjustment concerning the assessment process, depending on the level of support you require. This will be determined at the enrolment process.

NUMERACY

There is very little numeracy required in the short courses that we offer.

There is a numeracy standard required for higher qualifications. However, we encourage the use of calculators.

If a student meets essential entry requirements, the RTO must make 'reasonable adjustments' necessary for them to complete their course work or demonstrate competency. This may include adjusting the physical environment, student learning materials or the manner that a theory test is completed.

The Gold Coast Training College Training follows all relevant Commonwealth and State laws as detailed below.

The Gold Coast Training College Training abides by the principles of the Privacy Act, however the organisation may be required to provide student contact details to State or Federal authorised personnel for audit or upholding the law.

WELFARE AND GUIDANCE SERVICES AND CLIENT SUPPORT

If you have a problem with your course, you should see your trainer who will help you find the assistance you need.

STUDENT PUNCTUALITY

Students should be at the course at least 15 minutes prior to the start of training. Some courses have enrolment proof of identity requirements and students must be able to satisfy these prior to attendance.

Failure to be on time may preclude you from attending. Transfer to another course is possible, a refund in these circumstances will not be available.

COMPETENCY BASED TRAINING

All training is based on the principles of Competency Based Training. Delivery and assessment will involve students in accomplishing the tasks required to demonstrate competency in any unit. Students will be provided with every opportunity to demonstrate that they can carry out required tasks.

All accredited courses, delivery and assessment comply with the requirements of the nationally endorsed Training Packages or Accredited Courses. These documents are found on our web site under the tab of the corresponding course. Students may access these packages or course outlines and familiarize themselves with each competency unit criteria. Some courses e.g. first aid will also display competency sheets to help you understand what tasks are required and what competencies are required.

TRAINING – TRAINERS AND ASSESSORS

All training staff are employed based on having the qualifications, skills, knowledge, experience, and attitude for the position. The Gold Coast Training College Training follows employment legislation and promotes EEO principles in its recruitment practices.

TRAINING - FLEXIBLE DELIVERY OF YOUR TRAINING

The Gold Coast Training College Training practices the principles of flexible delivery. Programs are designed and delivered in a way that is best suited to the course content and the needs of the students. At times this means courses are available to be delivered in a classroom environment, on line or using a combination of classroom and on-line methods.

At the start of each course trainers will identify the delivery needs of the students and may adapt delivery strategies to meet the needs of the students, provided the content and evidence of competency still meets the needs of the training package or accredited course. The Gold Coast Training College Training pre-delivery approves changes. This ensures proper accredited qualifications can be issued.

Delivery alternatives may include: presentations, role play, case studies, demonstrations, excursions, guest lectures, group work, calculations, exercises, journals, projects, observations, computer assisted learning, tutorial style and individualized learning, library use, magazines and newspapers, video, and audio- visual.

All delivery and assessment is geared towards one outcome - that is the awarding of a nationally recognised qualification or statement of attainment. Hence delivery and assessment will be conducted according to the competency unit criteria as stipulated in the training package or accredited course.

ASSESSMENT – INDUSTRY CONSULTATION

The Gold Coast Training College Training liaises with industry to confirm that the current course material and training reflects industry needs, covers knowledge and skills to meet employment and skill demands of industry; proposed courses are reflective of future industry and employment growth and assessment strategies, assess significant points and provide results that are useful to prospective employers.

ASSESSMENTS – VALIDATION AND MODERATION

The Gold Coast Training College Training ensures that our business model moderates all assessment tasks to ensure that the tasks and hence the results are reliable, valid, and fair and to ensure that the marking procedures are also fair and valid. Validating an assessment task involves checking that the assessment tool produces valid, reliable, sufficient, current, and authentic evidence to enable reasonable judgments to be made as to whether the requirements of the relevant aspects of the Training Package or accredited course have been met.

It includes reviewing and making recommendations for future improvements to the assessment tool, process and/or outcomes. Assessment tasks and course results are moderated (results and assessments made are reviewed to determine whether the tool is providing consistency and reliable outcomes) by course advisory committees at bi-annual meetings.

All delivered units will be assessed at the time of delivery by the trainer/assessor.
All assessment tasks are competency based and cover the entire scope of the units covered in the training program. Assessments are then subjected to checking by The Gold Coast Training College Training prior to the issue of statements of attainment or course certificates

Assessment tasks are designed to evaluate evidence that a student can demonstrate competency in all relevant subject competencies.

Students are provided with every opportunity, within their course duration, to obtain and show competency. Students not able to show competency after the completion of their course will have the opportunity to redo the aspects of the assessment that require evidence of the student's competence.

This must be achieved within one month of completing the course, alternately, it may be decided that the student will need to re-enroll in the course and complete the outstanding assessment activity as part of the course. The trainer/assessor will indicate the requirements to demonstrate competencies required.

ASSESSMENT APPEALS.

All appeals should in the first instance be discussed with your trainer to allow you to see if it is possible to be re-assessed. Students wishing to make an appeal should first make an appointment with the trainer/assessor. If the matter is not resolved an appointment (or telephone/email) should be made for an interview with the Manager.

RPL is an assessment process that assesses the individual's non-formal and informal learning to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards for entry to, and/or partial or total completion of, a qualification.

the application being submitted. The cost may vary by course and must be paid at the time of application to your assessor or direct to The Gold Coast Training College Training.

National Recognition

Under national recognition, The Gold Coast Training College Training recognises the qualifications issued by other Australian RTO's and will grant an exemption for all previous training resulting in a competent result where the unit of competency can be identified, either as listed in the relevant Training Package or NTIS website.

Students are required to indicate their intention to apply for exemption at the time of registration and complete the RPL & Exemption Information KIT. Students will be informed in writing regarding the cost prior to application, the results of their application and any further evidence required.

Fees associated with this process will be advised prior to the assessment of the material.

Students may complete a Grievance and Appeals form and lodge it at the reception. An appropriate staff member will contact the student and organise a meeting to discuss their concerns.

If an amicable result cannot be achieved the student may access 3rd party intervention as made available by The Gold Coast Training College Training. Students will receive a student complaint, grievance, or Appeals outcome statement. The Gold Coast Training College Training Grievance and Appeals Policy and Procedure does not restrict the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

The Gold Coast Training College Training has in place arrangements for a person or body independent of and external to The Gold Coast Training College Training to hear complaints or appeals arising from the Gold Coast Training College Training's internal complaints and appeals process. Students are referred to an existing body, where that body is appropriate for the complaint or appeal. Each party may be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings.

Issuance of Qualifications

On completion of a course, subject to checking of documentation students will be issued with the appropriate certification. On successful course completion students will be eligible to receive qualifications/Unit of competency.

If students do not complete all required subjects at competent level they will not be eligible to receive a qualification. They will, however, be eligible to receive a Statement of Attainment for the units completed within the course.

- Students may make a complaint about any matter, which relates to their program of study at The Gold Coast Training College, even if the incident, which is the basis of the complaint, did not occur on a course.

Accountability for Student Complaints

A key principle in The Gold Coast Training College complaint resolution process is that complaints are resolved wherever possible at the lowest appropriate level of management.

Students are encouraged to raise their complaint in the first instance directly with the person concerned. This is appropriate in matters where the student feels comfortable with making a direct approach, or where the complaint does not relate to allegations of unlawful behaviour (e.g. assault, illegal discrimination or harassment, corruption).

Where it is not appropriate for the student to raise the issue directly with the other person/s, they can make a complaint to the Manager or other person in authority at The Gold Coast Training College.

The Manager of The Gold Coast Training College is responsible for receiving and investigating complaints from students.

All students have the option of making a formal written complaint to the Manager. The Manager will gather information and seek advice from all parties before responding to the complaint

Assistance for Students in Making a Complaint

Students may wish to seek advice and assistance in lodging a complaint from one of the instructors at The Gold Coast Training College.

How to Raise a Complaint

A complaint to a person in authority can be in writing on the complaints form, and due to the requirements of procedural fairness the complainant will have to be identified unless the facts of the matter are not in dispute.

Often the complainant may not wish to complete a customer complaint form and so makes the complaint verbally to a member of staff. It is the duty of the member of staff to document this complaint.

- If the complaint is about a staff member, the complaint should be made to the Manager.
- If the complaint is about another The Gold Coast Training College student, the complaint should be made to the Instructor and/or the Manager, and the complaint will then be reviewed and resolved.
- If the complaint relates to behaviour by a person external to The Gold Coast Training College who the student is interacting with in the course is the assessor or a training instructor, the complaint should be made to the Manager who will then follow the policy and take appropriate action.

Complaints - principles for handling a complaint

The Gold Coast Training College procedures for handling student complaints are based on confidentiality, impartiality, procedural fairness, and prompt resolution.

- Where appropriate, complaints will be resolved at the lowest possible level of management or in accordance with the hierarchy above. However, all complaints will be recorded in The Gold Coast Training College complaints register so that all levels of management are aware of complaints made. The Manager will monitor progress, engage all relevant levels of management, and ensure that action is taken in each case.
- Procedural fairness will be observed in all aspects of handling a complaint. In practice, this means that all parties to a complaint will be informed of the complaint, the specific allegations being made, and all parties will be given the opportunity to respond to any allegations made. Procedural fairness usually requires that the complainant must be willing to be identified, unless the facts of the matter are not in dispute, or where the matter involves allegations of corruption, misadministration, or serious waste.

- Management will ensure that they have no conflict of interest or bias in relation to any party to the complaint, and that there is no perception by the parties that they have a conflict of interest or bias. If the person in authority does not believe they can handle the complaint in an impartial way, they will exclude themselves from the process, and refer the matter to their supervisor. In the case of a conflict of interest or an inability to resolve the complaint, the complaint should be referred to the relevant governing/regulatory body for mediation.
- Confidentiality will be respected wherever possible within the constraints of the need to fully investigate the complaint, and matters pertaining to the complaint will not be discussed beyond the parties to the complaint and staff involved in resolving the complaint. In some cases, resolution of the complaint may also involve appropriate bodies external to The Gold Coast Training College, e.g. trade unions or statutory bodies.
- Resolution of the complaint will usually consider the preferred process of resolution of the person who made the complaint. However, there may be instances where a complaint is of such a serious nature that formal action is required that is beyond the wishes of the complainant, e.g. when a complaint raises or relates to allegations of unlawful behaviour or corruption or when The Gold Coast Training College duty of care to staff or students may be compromised if no action is taken. All complaints will be dealt with in accordance with The Gold Coast Training College Policy and procedures.

- Management have a responsibility to respond to complaints within a reasonable timeframe. Complaints will be responded to as quickly as possible in the circumstances, and complainants will be advised of the proposed timeframe for resolution. Unless a complaint is unusually complex or involves allegations of misconduct, The Gold Coast Training College will achieve resolution of a complaint within 4 weeks of the complaint being lodged with the appropriate person in authority. If it is not possible to achieve resolution within this timeframe the complainant will be advised of this, and will be kept informed of the progress of the matter. Students should be aware that if the matter has been lodged initially at an inappropriate level of authority, it might take longer to respond to the complaint.

Where the Gold Coast Training College considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint, the Gold Coast Training College will inform the complainant in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required, and

Will provide regularly updates to the complainant on the progress of the matter.

The Gold Coast Training College will provide for review by an appropriate party independent of the RTO and the complainant, at the request of the individual making the complaint, if RTO process fail to resolve the complaint.

Outcomes of the complaint resolution process

Complainants will receive a written statement documenting the outcome of their complaint unless resolved at the time the complaint is raised and further correspondence would serve no purpose. The outcome will be in keeping with the seriousness of the incident, which was the basis of the complaint, and outcomes will be applied consistently across The Gold Coast Training College. Some of the possible outcomes of a student complaint include:

- Through the resolution process the student gains a better understanding of the situation so that his/her concerns are addressed.
- A mutually acceptable resolution is reached through conciliation or mediation.
- The complainant receives an apology, and/or the issue or behaviour that was the basis of their complaint is modified.
- In some cases, the complaint cannot be substantiated and no further action will result.
- In more serious cases, The Gold Coast Training College formal disciplinary processes will be invoked.

Legislation

The objectives of the Standards are to ensure nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment services for the clients of Australia's vocational education and training (VET) system.

The purpose of these Standards is to:

- set out the requirements that an organisation must meet to be a registered training organisation (RTO);
- ensure that training products delivered by RTOs meet the requirements of training packages or VET accredited courses, and have integrity for employment and further study; and
- ensure RTOs operate ethically with consideration of learners' and enterprises' needs.

The Standards form part of the VET Quality Framework. As defined in section 3 of the Act, the VET Quality Framework is comprised of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations, the Australian Qualifications Framework, the Fit and Proper Person Requirements, the Financial Viability Risk Assessment Requirements, and the Data Provision Requirements.

Compliance with the Standards is a condition for all NVR RTOs and for applicants seeking registration under the Act.
